UST Study Abroad Rome, Italy

ENGL 1342: Dr. James Barloon: January 1-11th, 2015*

On-Campus dates: TBA

Enrollment Deadline: October 17, 2014

ENGL 1342: The Middle Ages & Renaissance-Literature and Composition II

Description: Medieval and Renaissance lyric, drama and narrative, and their abiding relevance. Techniques of research writing.
Prerequisites: ENGL 1341

Price includes: 3 hours tuition, airfare, housing, breakfast, ground transportation, airport transfer and excursions.

To contact Dr. Barloon: barlooj@stthom.edu or 713-942-5033

We'll divide our reading in Rome, the Eternal City, between Dante and Shakespeare--the two writers who, according to T.S. Eliot, "divide the modern world." Dante wrote his Divine Comedy, a virtual guidebook to the medieval mind, while in exile from his beloved Florence. Shakespeare was also fascinated by the grandeur of ancient Rome. He wrote four Roman plays, including Julius Caesar and Antony and Cleopatra, the two plays we'll read. Now these works play a central

Undergraduate: 5,850 Graduate: $6,000

The following is needed to enroll: $1000.00 non-refundable deposit receipt, valid passport (good through 6 months after your return), registration packet filled out and signed by you or your parent if under 21.

Registration Packets and Study Abroad Handbook can be found at www.stthom.edu/studyabroad
For more information —Diana Speaks (713) 525– 3530 or studyabroad@stthom.edu

UNIVERSITY of ST. THOMAS