UNIVERSITY of ST. THOMAS HOUSTON

Houston Piano Day Camp

The Houston Piano Day Camp celebrates 26 years of educating young pianists.

Paul Krystofiak, Founder & Director

Mr. Krystofiak has served on the faculty of the Music Department at University of St. Thomas since 1986 and maintains a private piano studio.

He holds graduate degrees in piano performance and piano pedagogy from the University of Houston and has performed and studied in Europe. Among his teachers are Abbey Simon, Ruth Laredo, and Andrzej Dutkiewicz of the Warsaw Conservatory.

He served six terms as President of the Houston Music Teachers Association (HMTA). He was named outstanding alumnus in 1990 by his alma mater in Wisconsin. In 1993 he was honored by HMTA with the Teacher of the Year award and Service award. He was nominated to the Executive Board of the Texas Music Teachers Association.

Robert Murillo, Instructor

Robert Murillo is a certified EC-12 music educator with a degree from the University of St. Thomas. He has taught music and private lessons to all age groups from pre-school to adults and all levels and backgrounds. He leads a life of music and loves every moment. He hopes to share and encourage others to do so as well!

Join us for a memorable musical journey as we:

- Explore a variety of music through group activities
- Voyage through the instructional series, Composers
- Discover theory and practice technique
