IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AUDIT STUDENTS:

Individuals who wish to audit a course at UST are classified as non-degree seeking students. Enrollment in a course as an audit student is on a non-credit basis, and no grade will be issued for the course.

Courses are available for audit at the discretion of the instructor and on a space-available basis. Students may complete and submit an audit registration form at any time during the registration period, but space availability will not be determined until the last day of Regular Registration for the term in which the class is offered. The Registrar's Office will notify students by phone late on that date if they have been assigned an audit space. Spaces will be assigned on a first-come/first-serve basis.

Tuition for auditing a course must be paid on-line or in the Business Office by the last day of Late Registration (see Course Bulletin) for the term in which the course is offered.
