The Logistical Solutions, Inc. "Best Paper" in International Studies Award was established in 2012 to encourage international studies and international development majors to strive for excellence in research and written communications. Papers written for an INST or GEOG course assignment during spring 2013, regardless of length, are eligible for submission.

For 2012-13, there are up to two awards of approximately $1,500 each.

The eligibility requirements for this award are:

1. Full time, undergraduate student in international studies or int. development.
2. Completed no more than 12 credit hours of INST/GEOG coursework by spring 2013.
3. Enrolled in an INST or GEOG course during spring 2013.
4. In good academic standing with a GPA of at least 3.0.

Application Process

1. On a separate sheet of paper, write a 500 word personal statement that describes why you have submitted this paper; what you learned from the assignment; and how your writing helped you understand the issue(s) examined.

If you are a recipient of a UST Scholarship of 50% or greater, you are not eligible for this scholarship.

I agree that the above information is correct and true.
