The Jennifer and John Fichter International Studies Annual Scholarship was established to support majors in international studies and international development at the University of St. Thomas. This scholarship acknowledges students of academic excellence, integrity, and leadership.

For 2012-13, there is one scholarship of approximately $2,500.

To be eligible, a student must be:

1. Full time, undergraduate student.
2. Major in international studies or international development.
3. Sophomore standing and completed at least one academic semester at UST.
4. In good academic standing with a GPA of at least 3.0.

Application Process

1. On a separate sheet of paper, write a 500- 600 word personal statement that describes why you have chosen to pursue a degree in international studies; how you exercise leadership and integrity; and why receiving this scholarship would be important to you.

2. Two recommendations are required. These may be from a UST professor, staff member, and/or employer who can speak to your academic interests and performance, leadership, and your future plans in international affairs.

There is no form for this recommendation. Simply ask your professor to write a letter of reference and submit to Dr. Hans Stockton in the Center for International Studies, reference to the Jennifer and John Fichter Scholarship.

3. If you are a recipient of a UST Scholarship of 50% or greater, you are not eligible for this scholarship.
