FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 23, 2008

University of St. Thomas to host Summer Volleyball Camps

WHAT: The University of St. Thomas will host two Lady Celts Volleyball summer camps for high school and middle school students.

WHERE: University of St. Thomas
Jerabeck Athletic Center, 4000 Mt. Vernon

WHEN: All Skills Camp (6th – 8th grade): 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.; Advanced Camp (9th – 12th grade): 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. Monday, July 21 through Friday, July 25, 2008

BACKGROUND: The camp will be separated into two sessions. Girls in grades 6th through 8th will participate in the All Skills Camp in the morning and in the afternoon girls in grades 9th through 12th will participate in the Advanced Camp.

Designed for beginners, the All Skills Camp will teach basic volleyball skills such as serving, serve receive, forearm passing, setting, attacking and blocking. The Advanced Camp is tailored for current high school players who want to learn more advanced techniques to excel on the court.

Both camps include a 2008 camp T-shirt, certificate of participation and awards for special performances. UST head volleyball coach, Jill Reynolds, and the Celts volleyball team will lead both sessions. Brochures and registration forms can be found at www.stthom.edu/volleyball.

Early registration deadline is July 1, 2008. Late registration is an additional $15.

COST: The camps are $150 per person. A minimum of $50 deposit is required with application.
