

UNIVERSITY OF ST. THOMAS DRAMA 2017-2018 SEASON

Performed at The MATCH Midtown Arts and Theatre Houston
November 15 -18 7:30 PM

Winner of the John Gassner Playwriting Award, this critically acclaimed, award-winning evening of comedies combines wit, intellect, satire and just plain enjoyment. "Like sketches for some hilarious, celestially conceived revue. The writing is not only very funny, it has density of thought and precision of poetry...ALL IN THE TIMING is by a master of fun. David Ives spins hilarity out of words." – The New York Times

Meet a theatre troupe whose Christmas spirit sparkles far more than its acting talent! In this rollicking collection of comedy scenes, amateur actors are preparing a Christmas Eve production at the community center, but nothing is working right. Will this production be ready to open in time? Come laugh with us and see! Written by UST Professor Emeritus Sam Havens

We are proud to present an independently written and performed Senior Project by UST Drama and Philosophy student, Iris Lacsamana. After studying abroad in Poland, she returned inspired by the home of the Divine Mercy. This performance will bear witness to the events of her journey retelling her painful and hopeful experiences. Iris will take you on a reflective voyage from the vast landscapes of the Vistula river in Krakow to the hidden crevices within her own soul. This play is a brutally honest look at life, faith, and purpose.

April 19-21 & 26-28
7:30 PM

Don't miss this world premier adaptation of Jane Austen's classic novel PRIDE AND PREJUDICE. This period romance shows how first impressions are often wrong and what we are capable of when we allow ourselves to see past our stubbornness. This new adaptation, written by UST Professor Eric Domuret, promises to carry the audience away to a time of simple beauty, ideals, and the rolling hills of the British countryside.
