

Young Hall

Young Hall, located on the south side of campus, offers apartments to upper-class, graduate or adult students who want to benefit from a Residence Life community. A limited number of single-occupancy rooms are available.

Features of Young Hall include:

- Choice of one, two or three bedroom units.
- Full-service kitchens with appliances.
- Furnished bedrooms with two extra-long, twin-size beds, two chairs, two dressers and two desks. Furnished living room with one sofa and two end tables. Furnished dining room with a dining table and chairs.
- Resident Assistant staff, maintenance staff, on-site laundry and center courtyard.

Campus Dining

Students are required to purchase a meal plan. Options include Celts Market Place and Subway inside Crooker Center. Celts Market Place serves breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Friday, brunch on Saturday and brunch and dinner on Sunday.

Celts Market Place offers many choices including low fat, low carb and vegetarian meal options. Celts Market features a salad and soup bar, sandwich station, fresh vegetables, hamburgers, pizza, baked goods and desserts all afternoon and during evening meals. Subway is open seven days a week. Subway offers sandwiches, flatbreads and salads.

Housing Reservations

You can apply for Residence Life housing by completing an application online at stthom.edu/residencelifeapplication.

Students are encouraged to apply early because spaces fill up quickly. A contract will be mailed upon completion of the housing application and acceptance of immunization records. A $300 security deposit is due with the completed contract. A placement will be reserved upon receipt of the complete contract and security deposit.

- A limited number of single-occupancy rooms are available.

Campus Living

Living on the University of St. Thomas campus provides students with convenience, affordability, safety and greater access to University activities. Studies have shown that students who choose to live on campus are more involved in the campus community, earn better grades and transition more easily into the University culture.

The University has two types of campus housing to meet each individual student's needs:

- Guinan Residence Hall, under the direction of Residence Life, is a three-story, 306-bed facility with private double-occupancy rooms.

- Young Hall is also encompassed in Residence Life and offers apartments to upper-class students, graduate and adult students who want to benefit from a Residence Life community.

Guinan Residence Hall and Young Hall offer in-residence programs and activities designed specifically for residential students. These events are both fun and educational, and will help you build friendships and establish a community of your own.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The University of St. Thomas remains committed to the Catholic intellectual tradition and to the highest ideals of academic excellence.

St. Thomas consistently ranks high among choices of the best education in the nation:

- The Cardinal Newman Society: Named among the top 22 Catholic colleges and universities
- U.S. News & World Report: "America's Best Colleges" in the Western region
- The Princeton Review Guide: "Best Western Colleges."

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Small classes allow personal attention that helps you complete your degree on time. Professors know you by name, and dedicated staff members offer the support and services you need to guide you to your undergraduate degree. We want you to learn and succeed.

"Living on campus has given me more opportunities to make friends and be involved with campus life. My fellow residents at Guinan have really become a second family. It's so convenient to live on campus. I hear about people who wake up at 6 a.m. to commute to class, but I can wake up 10 minutes before class and get there on time."
