Master of Science in Finance

The Cameron School of Business (CSB) at the University of St. Thomas serves students of diverse backgrounds and teaches professional skills necessary for a changing global economy. Inspired by the educational tradition of its founders, the Basilian Fathers, CSB is committed to educating ethical business leaders capable of managing the organizations of the future.

The Master of Science in Finance (MSF) is designed to serve the needs of working professionals in the finance field. Advantages of the MSF program include:

- Course curriculum built around industry needs
- Highly qualified and published faculty with industry experience
- A significant portion of the Chartered Financial Analyst®(CFA)
 Candidate Body of Knowledge covered in the curriculum
- Shorter program with 30 hours of coursework
- Internship and study abroad opportunities
- Total cost of program comparable to those of other quality programs in the Houston area
- Seminars and workshops provided through close partnership with the CFA Institute (on the main campus)

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The University of St. Thomas remains committed to the Catholic intellectual tradition and to the highest ideals of academic excellence.

St. Thomas consistently ranks high among choices of the best education in the nation:

- The Cardinal Newman Society: Named among the top 22 Catholic colleges and universities
- U.S. News & World Report: "America's Best Colleges" in the Western region
- The Princeton Review Guide: "Best Western Colleges."

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Small classes allow personal attention that helps you complete your degree on time. Professors know you by name, and dedicated staff members offer the support and services you need to guide you to your graduate degree. We want you to learn and succeed.

Degree Requirements

Excluding proficiency courses, MSF students are required to take 30 credit hours in the program. Core courses equal 24 credit hours and electives equal 6 credit hours.

Accreditation

The Cameron School of Business has achieved accreditation of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). This status provides the Cameron School international recognition as a quality business school.

Admission

Admission decisions are based on a combination of your undergraduate GPA and work history. GMAT and GRE scores are not required, but GMAT or GRE scores may be submitted for additional support of your application.

MSF for Non-Business Undergraduates

CSB offers proficiency courses to ease the transition to business core classes for students who do not hold undergraduate business degrees. These courses are designed to prepare students to meet the demands and rigor of the graduate business curricula.
