

Cameron School of Business

CSB serves students of diverse backgrounds and teaches professional skills necessary for a changing global economy. Inspired by the educational tradition of its founders, the Basilian Fathers, CSB is committed to educating ethical business leaders capable of managing the organizations of the future.

CSB offers the Bachelor of Business Administration and six graduate programs in business. CSB has achieved accreditation of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). This status provides the Cameron School international recognition as a quality business school.

Center for International Studies

Founded in 1981, the CIS offers the oldest degree program in international studies in Texas. The Center houses the international studies and international development programs, Social Entrepreneurship Program, Study Abroad Office, and Distinguished Diplomat Series. CIS offers inter-disciplinary majors that train students for analytical, evidence-based analysis of global phenomena. The Center also provides diverse opportunities for student research, service, and leadership.

Degree Plan

BIB students are required to take 69 credit hours in the major program. Fourteen courses will be offered through Cameron School of Business and nine courses will be offered through the Center for International Studies. Students must successfully complete two semesters of a foreign language and at least one short-term study abroad program taught by UST faculty.

BIB Transition to MIB and MBA

The BIB program includes the foundational courses in business to prepare students for admission into graduate business degree programs.

International Business

The Bachelor in International Business is a joint collaboration between the Cameron School of Business (CSB) and the Center for International Studies (CIS) to educate technically skilled and ethical future leaders of global commerce. In the 21st Century, business is global and young professionals equipped with knowledge of international contexts, cross-cultural communications, and foreign language will excel. Students pursue coursework in the business disciplines as well as business-government relations, foreign policy, and international politics.

The BIB program provides students with the skills and knowledge sets to be effective problem solvers and decision makers in a global business context. This requires that students:

- Develop the technical skills related to business disciplines and practices
- Possess cross-cultural and global awareness
- Understand and navigate the political economy in domestic, bi-lateral, regional, and global contexts

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The University of St. Thomas remains committed to the Catholic intellectual tradition and to the highest ideals of academic excellence.

St. Thomas consistently ranks high among choices of the best education in the nation:

- The Cardinal Newman Society: Named among the top 22 Catholic colleges and universities
- U.S. News & World Report: "America's Best Colleges" in the Western region
- The Princeton Review Guide: "Best Western Colleges."

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Small classes allow personal attention that helps you complete your degree on time. Professors know you by name, and dedicated staff members offer the support and services you need to guide you to your undergraduate degree. We want you to learn and succeed.

Careers and Employment

Our Career Services team provides on-campus recruiting, career fairs and networking events for employers and students. CSB graduates hold executive and managerial positions in a variety of corporations, nonprofit organizations, healthcare organizations and government agencies.
