The Center for International Studies Presents:

"Education and US Foreign Policy Interests"

Ambassador Adam Ereli

Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Friday, January 25, 2013
3:00 PM
Crooker Center, Ahern Room

Ambassador Adam Ereli serves as Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. The mission of the Bureau is to advance U.S. foreign policy objectives through educational and cultural programs that enhance mutual understanding between the people of the United States and people of other nations.

Ambassador Ereli has worked extensively as a diplomat abroad and at senior levels in the Department of State in Washington, as well as serving as Ambassador to Bahrain and other overseas assignments in Yemen, Ethiopia, Syria, and Egypt.

Ambassador Ereli will be discussing a variety of topics including: the use of education and cultural diplomacy as foreign policy tools; career opportunities at the State Department; USG sponsored exchange agreements; and the importance of studying abroad.
