Accreditation

The University of St. Thomas holds accreditation from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). In addition, the Cameron School of Business and its programs are accredited by the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

Center for Business Ethics

The Center for Business Ethics helps students to learn about a variety of ethical issues affecting business. We believe that companies and managers have an ethical duty to protect stakeholders, including shareholders and their property rights. We recognize the important role business institutions play in developing and maintaining a democratic system.

The Center offers:

- Leadership programs
- Corporate governance training programs
- Conferences on business ethics
- Public lectures
- Online Journal of Ethics

Study Abroad

CSB students have the opportunity to explore international business practices first-hand by studying abroad. Each year, UST sends more than 150 students to credited study abroad programs during winter break and summer sessions. These international study and internship opportunities provide knowledge of diverse cultures and a broad global perspective.

CFP® Certification Education Program

UST offers a post-degree educational program for professionals who want to pursue a career as a Certified Financial Planner. The weekend courses, designed for working professionals, include sessions on income tax planning, investment planning and insurance fundamentals. This registered program meets the educational requirements of the CFP® Board of Standards.

"I found the more personal experience at St. Thomas very refreshing. The professors were approachable and available. They provided a well-rounded program."

Aileen McCormick,
UST Graduate, President and COO, AmeriGroup
