

Bachelor of Arts in International Studies Major Requirements (57-58 credit hours)	Total Hours Complete	Total Hours Needed
History (6 credit hours) HIST 1335 – World Community I to 1750 HIST 1336 – World Community II since 1750
Foreign Language (6-12 credit hours depending on verbal fluency, see department) Two sequential courses in French, German, Greek, Latin, Spanish, Arabic, Mandarin Chinese, Irish, Italian or other available language
Mathematics (3-4 credit hours) Choose one course from the following: MATH 2434 – Applied Statistical Concepts MATH 3332 – Elementary Statistical Methods for Economics and Business
Geography (3 credit hours) GEOG 2332 – World Regional Geography
Geography (3 credit hours) Choose one course from the following: GEOG 3333 – Urban Geography GEOG 4330 – Geography of Natural Resources
International Studies (27 credit hours) INST 1351 – Introduction to International Studies INST 2352 – Research Methods in International Studies INST 3351 – Comparative Political Systems INST 3352 – International Politics INST 3354 – International Political Economy (pre-req INST 3352) INST 3355 – Intercultural Issues INST 3366 – The American Foreign Policy Process INST 4398 – Senior Thesis in International Studies Part I INST 4399 – Senior Thesis in International Studies Part II
International Regional Studies (3 credit hours) Choose one course from the following: INST 3357 – Regional Study of Europe INST 3359 – Regional Study of Latin America INST 3360 – Regional Study of East Asia INST 3363 – Regional Study of North Africa and the Middle East
International Studies Electives (6 credit hours) Choose 2 additional international studies elective courses
Other International Studies Major Requirements Language Requirement – The ability to communicate in foreign communities is fundamental to effective international work. Each student must demonstrate a foreign language capability through the 2000 level. Achieving this facility may require as few as 6 credit hours or as many as 12 credit hours of language classes. 1. Practical International Experience – Being immersed in an international environment is one of the most effective means for gaining an international perspective. Therefore, each student majoring in International Studies will complete one of the following practical international experiences: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Study Abroad • Internship in international business • Structured experience abroad without academic credit
Electives to reach the 126 credit hour minimum for graduation (30-31 credit hours)
Total Required	126

(_____ hours transferred)

_____ hrs complete + _____ hrs ip + _____ hrs core + _____ hrs major + _____ hrs minor + _____ hrs other + _____ hrs electives = 126+