TITLE IX (TIX): INCIDENT

Incidents involving sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and sexual exploitation.

Incident Occurs

Decide To Report
- Report the incident to a University employee, the Title IX Coordinator (TIXC) and/or file a criminal complaint
  >>Obtain Supportive Measures<<

For Title IX UST Investigation

Unsure Of Whether Or Not To Report
- Speak with a confidential employee or other confidential community resource
  >>Obtain Supportive Measures<<

For Criminal Investigation With Outside Law Enforcement

Do Not Wish To Report

Once Reported:
- Determine if incident could be a policy violation
- Access level of threat of parties involved
- Collaborate with campus partners as needed
- Provide outreach to the complainant

Outreach Includes:
- Offer supportive measures and resources
- Provide information about the process
- Explain formal complaint

Formal Complaint
- Formal or informal resolution available

Formal Resolution
- Investigation
- Hearing
- Appeal
- Case closed

Informal Resolution
- Parties agree on resolution
- No appeal available
- Case closed

Please Note
Regardless of a decision to file a formal complaint, supportive measures are always available, and can include the following:
- Counseling
- Extension of deadlines or other course related adjustments
- Modification to living arrangements, work and class schedules
- Increased security and monitoring of areas