

Unattended Personal Belongings Policy

Doherty Library is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for academic study and collaborative work. We also want to ensure your personal items are secure. Please see the guidelines below related to personal belongings:

- Do not leave your personal belongings unattended. According to the University of St. Thomas Police Department, thefts and burglaries can occur within a few seconds. For more information, please see the Personal Safety Protocol Sheet from the University of St. Thomas Police Department.
- You are responsible for your belongings at all times.
- Personal belongings may not be left unattended on library premises. Staff may remove unattended personal items if the owner cannot be identified, or items are not claimed.
