English Proficiency Exemption

For purposes of proficiency requirements, international applicants are exempt only if they have earned, or will have earned by the time they begin study at UST, a high school diploma and/or post-secondary degree from the countries listed below. The diploma or degree must come from a country where English is the sole official language and the primary conversational language of the country.

Students from the following countries are exempt from the TOEFL/IELTS/Duolingo requirement:

• American Samoa
• Australia
• Bahamas
• Barbados
• Bermuda
• Belize
• British Virgin Islands
• Canada (except Quebec)
• Dominica
• Ghana
• Grenada
• Grand Cayman
• Guyana
• India
• Ireland
• Jamaica
• Kenya
• Liberia
• New Zealand
• Nigeria
• Singapore
• Trinidad/Tobago
• Turks and Caicos Islands
• United Kingdom
• U.S. Pacific Trus

Please note, if you submit your unofficial/official scores than our office will take these scores into account when rendering a decision. If you have any questions about the English Proficiency exemption policy, please reach out to your designated Admissions Counselor at your earliest convenience.

We look forward to helping you along your Celt Journey!
