Historical Note

Thomas J. Crow came to the University in 1973 as a Lecturer in History. In the fall of 1987 he became the Chair of the Music Department and continues to teach in the Department of History as an Associate Professor. He taught British History, Modern European History and Historiography. His research includes compiling a bibliography of Jewish Organ Music and a complete list of pipe organs in Houston with research notes about each. He was involved in research of David Tannenberg, an American organ builder. He did research on the papers on Tannenberg and his organs, especially in Moravian Churches.

Biographical Note

Thomas J. Crow was Organist-Choirmaster at Bethany Christian Church since 2004, and at Congregation Beth Israel since 1978. He was the principal consultant for the University of St. Thomas Monaghan Pipe Organ in St. Basil's Chapel, and played the dedication service and first recital on the instrument in 1998. His educational pursuits include: BA degree in English and History (1967) and his MA degree from Lamar University (1969). He served on several University of St. Thomas committees.

Scope and Content Note

The collection of the Music Department covers the period from 1971 – 2012.

Subjects include:

- Correspondence
- Calendar of Events
- Students

Acquisition Information

The files were obtained from Thomas Crow, Chair of Music Department.

Physical Condition

Most of the files are in good condition. Some of the papers have a small amount of rust on them from the fasteners that were used. Others are somewhat acidic which have turned the papers brown. No conservation work is planned.
