Home Access to Library Databases for Students, Faculty, and Staff

This is a great way to do research from your home computer! Find full-text journal articles in every subject.

Step 1
Go to the UST Doherty Library Homepage at http://library.stthom.edu

Step 2
Click on Choose a Library Database.

Step 3
After choosing your database, you will be prompted to enter your UST e-mail username and password. (Your username is the part of your address that comes before the "@" sign.)

Notes:
You must have a UST e-mail account to access Library databases from home. Signing up for your e-mail account is easy:
Go to https://webmail.stthom.edu and click on [New User? Sign Up Online]. You’ll need to have your UST I.D. number handy.

If you have questions regarding search strategy or database content, contact the reference librarians (Rachel, Mary, or Lisa) at the reference desk phone: 713-525-2188 or e-mail: reference@stthom.edu.

If you have technical problems, contact Melissa (phone: 713-525-2183 or e-mail: torresm1@stthom.edu.)
