WHAT: UST Campus Ministry hosts third annual Holy Hour for Life, which will include a talk “On the Gospel of Life” given by Dr. John P. Hittinger, vice president of Academic Affairs. He will address some of the moral and political dimensions of the pro-life position. Holy Hour will immediately follow the talk.

WHEN: 7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 22

WHERE: University of St. Thomas
Chapel of St. Basil, 3802 Yoakum Blvd.
Parking: Moran Center, 3807 Graustark at West Alabama

BACKGROUND: UST’s annual Holy Hour for Life began in January 2005 in response to the American bishops’ request that Jan. 22, the anniversary of the Supreme Court’s decision to legalize abortion in Roe vs. Wade, should be considered a day of reconciliation and prayer in each parish. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal explains that it is supposed to be a day of “penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life.”

COST: Free and open to the public.
