UST Students Receive Scholarships from Donne Di Domani

HOUSTON( April 25, 2006)----Three students from the University of St. Thomas were awarded scholarships from Donne Di Domani, an Italian ladies organization, totaling $3,000 for the 2006-2007 academic year.

This year’s scholarship winners included sophomore psychology and philosophy student Steven Vaughn. Vaughn learned of the scholarship opportunity from his boss, Financial Aid Counselor Lynda LeClair. “I was really busy that week and I wasn’t sure that I would have the time to fill out the application, but she insisted that I do so and here I am, so I have her to thank for it,” Vaughn said.

After graduation, Vaughn plans to either become a lawyer or a counselor in the field of psychology. This scholarship will help him achieve his goals as
