2006 Hesburgh Lecture at University of St. Thomas

WHAT: The 2006 Hesburgh Lecture will feature Dr. Carolyn Woo speaking on “Corporate Governance: What Holds it Together.”

WHO: Sponsored by UST’s Center for International Studies and The Notre Dame Club of Houston

WHEN: 5:30–7 p.m. Tuesday, April 11

WHERE: University of St. Thomas
Jones Hall, 3910 Yoakum
Parking: Moran Center, 3807 Graustark at W. Alabama

BACKGROUND: Woo will address the questions: Given the recent corporate scandals and the subsequent regulatory returns, what have we gained? What are the drivers that bring about a culture of integrity and accountability? What role does corporate governance play?

Woo is dean of Mendoza College of Business, University of Notre Dame. Before this position, Woo served as associate executive vice president for Academic Affairs at Purdue University. She has received numerous awards for her commitment to higher education, including the Salgo-Noren Award for Outstanding Teaching in the Master’s Programs and was inducted into the Order of the Griffin by Purdue University for exceptional service and commitment.

She serves on the boards of AON Corporation, Circuit City and NiSource Inc. Woo has also served as chair of AACSB International, the accreditation association for business schools.

COST: Free and open to the public.
