Love Letters at the University of St. Thomas

WHAT: Escenario Hispanico de Houston presents a Spanish version of Love Letters (Cartas de amor) with Elsa Zambosco and Hector Bidegain, to be performed at the University of St. Thomas.

WHEN: 7:30 p.m. Thursday-Friday, April 20-21, 2006

WHERE: University of St. Thomas
Cullen Hall
4001 Mt. Vernon

BACKGROUND: Love Letters, by A.R. Gurney, centers on the intersecting lives of Andrew Ladd and Melissa Gardner. Through a series of written correspondence, the audience gets to know both intimately - from their strict upbringing through later life political aspirations, love affairs, military service and artistic accomplishments.

Love Letters received its world premiere on Nov. 3, 1988. It has been around the world, performed by different actors: Charlton Heston and his wife Lydia Clarke, Joan Collins and Stacey Keach, Graciela Borges and Rodolfo Beban, Graciela Borges and Federico Luppi, Graciela Borges and Alberto de Mendoza, Daniela Romo and Ebrique Rocha, Elaine Strich and Jason Robards, Stephany Powers and Robert Wagner, among others.

COST: $5 for students with ID and $15 for general admission. Tickets are sold at the door.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Contact Prof. Elsa Zambosco- Thomas at 713-525-3123.
