UST and Casa Argentina de Houston Present “Tango Time”
A Recital of Piano, Violin and Dance

WHAT: A recital of piano, violin and dance, sponsored by University of St. Thomas Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Casa Argentina de Houston.

WHO: Argentine-pianist Rene Casarsa with special performances by violinist Pablo Donatti and tango dancers Martin and Natia Pelaez

WHEN: 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 16

WHERE: University of St. Thomas
Jones Hall, 3910 Yoakum
Parking: Moran Center, 3807 Graustark at West Alabama

BACKGROUND: The recital aims to take the listener on a nostalgic journey of the early days of tango blended with the avant-garde music of Buenos Aires.

Rene Casarsa has developed an extensive repertoire of mostly Argentine tangos, milongas, candombes and waltzes. A selection of themes from the old and the new, as well as pieces with different rhythms are chosen for each recital.

COST: $16 general admission, $14 Casa Argentina de Houston members, $8 students. To purchase tickets, send a check, no later than Sept. 9, made payable to Casa Argentina de Houston, to 4740 Ingersoll, Suite 104, Houston, TX 77027. (Note on the check that it is for Tango Time.)
