BACKGROUND: Wilma Jensen has served on the faculties of Indiana University, Bloomington; the Scarritt Graduate School, Nashville; Oklahoma City University, Oklahoma City; and the Blair School of Music of Vanderbilt University, shaping a generation of organists, teachers and church musicians. Her own concert career has taken her throughout the U.S. and around the world, including tours of Norway, Sweden, Denmark, West Germany, France, Poland and England.

A graduate of the Eastman School of Music, she was a pupil of Catharine Crozier and Harold Gleason. Jensen is the choirmaster/organist emerita at St. George's Episcopal Church in Nashville, Tenn., where she served for 19 years. She has made critically acclaimed recordings, both as an organ soloist and in the role of conductor with the St. George’s Choir. Jensen worked on building the choir to a musical level that resulted in an invitation to sing for the National Convention of the American Choral Directors Association and an extended tour in Europe.
